A shocking tragedy cocurred last night in the bar of the Hongkong Hotel. About eight o'clock several people were drinking in the bar, among them Corporal Arthur William Jinks, of the Army Medical Staff Corps. Some dispute seems to have arisen between Jinks and the boys serving at the Bar, and during the alteroation Jinks was knocked down upon the floor by one of the boys. As the soldier did not rise, a bystander brought in a policeman, who took the boy alleged to have committed the assault into custody. Jinks was taken to the Hospital. He never recovered consciousness, and died this morning. Deceased was only 25 years of age. This morning at the Magistracy, Chu Sing Chi was brought before Captain William Jinks in the Hongkong Hotel on
